Side Events German Pavilion at COP26 in Glasgow

Visit this year's virtual Pavilion at www.german-climate-pavilion.de and register now to follow all side events, network and participate.

All timeslots are indicated in local time in Glasgow (CET - 1).

Open and communicative – that is how the German pavilion is presenting itself at the 26th United Nations Climate Change Conference (COP26) from 31 October to 12 November 2021 in Glasgow, Scotland.

The Federal Government of Germany recognizes the contribution and participation of non-state actors in the climate change dialogue by collaborating and ensuring that half of the events at the German Pavilion are from non-government organizations in the spheres of environment, science, development, industry, trade unions, municipalities and youth.
